Just a Little Bit About the Puppies

Adventures of Hot Rod Todd was inspired by a litter of Siberian Husky pups born March 14th 2019 to dam Empress Maya and sire Damien Czar. In this story, 'Hot Rod Todd Rescue Mum and Dad', Mum Empress Maya and Dad Damien Czar are on a vacation and get stranded in the Alaskan wilderness. The puppies are frantic and a huge rescue mission is launched.

Todd's persona name, Hot Rod Todd, was inspired by his owner's love for car / truck shows and restoring vintage autos. In this story, Todd is the sensible one and admired by the other puppies. He's clearly their Alpha, or leader.

Haku's persona name is BBQ Haku. Her owner has an amazing BBQ pit and holds awesome barbeques. Clearly, in the story, Haku adores her big brother. As the only girl in the pack, her brothers always have her back.

Echo, Eye Patch Echo, had an accident which damaged his right eye. But don't let that fool you. He's a wise guy, sharp as a tack, and will do anything for his pack mates. He loves nothing more than to tease his sister BBQ Haku.

Merc's persona name is Rock Star Merc. His owner loves rock music. Merc is a 'Wild Child', but, at the end of the day, his loyalty lies with the pack and he's loved by all. As a 'Rock Star' he can often turn up anytime, anywhere and being a Superstar has lots of 'toys' at his disposal.

Simba's name is of African origin and simply means, lion. Naturally, lions are known as 'King of the Jungle'. Therefore, HRH (His Royal Highness) Simba seemed appropriate for his persona name. He has a special growl that resembles a roar.

Koda, Morse Koda, has dots and dashes on his tummy, much like a Morse code message. (The code was an old communication system using dots and dashes to send messages.) Both Morse Koda and HRH Simba live in Montana and are the techy whizz pups of the pack.

Mum and Dad

Both Mum (dam) Empress Maya and Dad (sire) Damien Czar are AKC Registered Siberian Huskies. They are seen here with their March 14th, 2019 litter on which the books are all based.

So Many People to Thank

First and foremost, my ever-patient wife Meta and then, artist/illustrator/writer Cameo Anderson, (www.cameoanderson.com) for bringing everything I imagined so vividly to life, AGAIN, as well as putting up with me.

Ashlee Kiser for her amazing patience proof reading not once, but a number of times and of course Ashlee's son Ian who is Balto and Jenna's pack alpha; also very best friend. Ian already has his pack in training as one day he would like to become a musher of his own sled team.

Fellow author Sylva Fae for her ongoing help and advice and for allowing the pack to adopt her bunny rabbit Fluff who is now an honorary Husky, Fluff the Bunsy who, along with Balto, is a very important to this story.

Pilots, Alex and Jonathan Lundberg, whose Siberian Husky "Captain Chinook," is Rock Star Merc's Tour Jet and Chinook helicopter pilot as well as his very best friend.

A HUGE thank you to Gina in England who is a great fan of the pups, especially BBQ Haku. It was Gina's ideas that inspired the Rescue Scene depicted in Spread 16 (pages 32-33) - thank you so much Gina, it is perfect.

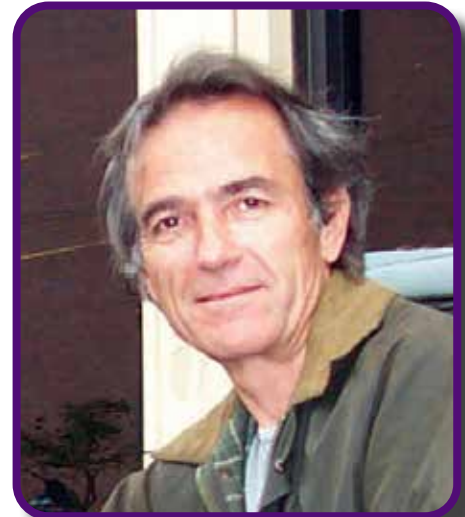

Finally, Jasmine Pratt and Brittany Baldwin, who have done so much on the books' Facebook Group "Husky Family and Friends." If I am honest, they are the heart and soul of the group - thank you both.

The Author: Adrian Czarnecki

Oh goodness me, where on earth do I begin. Well first and foremost I prefer the title 'Story Teller'. So, as stories need a beginning, a middle and an end, lets work on that principle.

I was born July 4th, 1950 in Huddersfield Yorkshire. My mum was a Yorkshire lass, my dad came over to the UK from Poland during WWII with the Free Polish Air Force. He was later commissioned into the Royal Air Force.

Naturally as a 'forces brat' we never stayed in one place for very long. When asked about my education I simply say "traveling the world." Oh yes, during the 60's (yes I do remember them) my big brother David had a band so, yep it was natural that I got involved in music playing bass, rhythm and lead guitar for a number of bands over the years but, though I loved it, I really couldn't take it seriously.

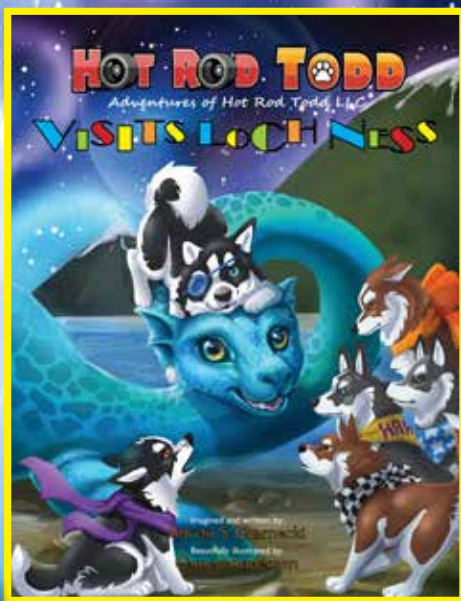

After graduating I sort of continued 'traveling the world' living in many countries where I quickly learned to soak up the culture, "when in Rome do as the Romans do" as they say. Now, I live a semi-retired life in Idaho, USA, writing my Adventures of Hot Rod Todd children's story books that are based on a real life litter of Siberian Huskies born on March 14th 2019 to proud parents, my dam, Empress Maya and my sire Damien Czar.

So, on the way to ending up in the USA, I worked as a Press Photographer escalating to Group Chief Photographer for a group of NW England Newspapers. During this period I also freelanced with a number of angling (fishing) newspapers and magazines both in the UK and Europe which was a lot of fun. I then went into a period kind of wandering round Europe doing a bit of marketing here and a bit of marketing there as they say. Loved my time in Portugal, Spain and particularly the Loire Valley in France – omg the wines say no more.

So back to England I went into the Printing Industry working for companies in London and the South East of England which was fun but you know, I simply wasn't cut out for the 24/7 wearing suits lifestyle so, when the opportunity arose to move out to Idaho in the USA in 2000 I jumped at it. I simply loved the lifestyle, the 'quality of life' and the laid back atmosphere living in the mountains.

So to date, that's about it. We've had the 'beginning' of the story. I'm currently in the 'middle' of the story having a blast writing the children's story books and mmmmm heck who knows when the story will end.
